

INSURANCE
in All Its Branches
S. H. BEAUMONT
Phone 369
In St. Penn Yan
Factory Finished
OAK FLOORS

YOUR PROTECTION!

It's extra security for you clearly worded Central insurance policy, offering complete protection at low cost. Call us today.

S. H. Beaumont
PENN YAN

County Agricultural Society 58 town and county fair ass in the state to receive state amount apportioned for the any fair being $4,116.32. receives $4,253.09.

our old rags and papers for Scouts. They are trying to try to send boys to the Na shore at Washington, D. C.
Collections will be made May 15.

ra Luenberger gave a recital and voice pupils at the Evelyn Reed, Indian Pines, afternoon from 2:30 to 5 Evelyn as hostess. Mon at 6:30 the music and club, taught by Mrs. Luen are entertained at the home Snyder, Highland Drive.

E. Rose, superintendent of schools, was guest speaker luncheon meeting of Penn schools. The speaker con local business men on the in the schools, and assistance given to the youth plan.

are amusing themselves by watching the tight-wire s of grey squirrels in the which are taking their "dally y walking along the cables cable lines in the village. reets in the village has its r with different hours for es.

Luke O'Malley, aged 71, of Penn Yan, R. D. 1, was arraigned before
City Judge Thomas A. Kane yester day afternoon on a charge of petit larceny. The aged man entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was ordered held temporarily in the city jail pending efforts to make restitution.
O'Malley specifically was accus ed of passing a worthless check for $12.40 at the Howard Hotel in Ex change Street, receiving $10 in change. The check, drawn on Bald win's Bank of Penn Yan was protest ed and returned here and O'Malley was arrested by Sergeant William C.
Yerg. —Geneva Times (Apr. 29).

Members of Penn Yan Stamp Club are making an effort to have their banquet on May 13 one of the philatelic highlights of this section to close a very satisfactory season for the local club. Each committee is doing its part to make this meeting an entertain ing one, including the refresh ment committee which has selected a menu that is very appetizing. Another feature of the banquet is the many attractive prizes offered for competition.
There will also be three door prizes.

The Modern Literature Club will meet Saturday night, May 15, at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. F. M. McNiff, 211 East Main Street. Louise Kipp will review that thought-provoking new book, "Return to Religion", and Mrs.
Margaret Durry will review Philip Quedallas, "Hundred Years." Mrs.
Durry will also tell us something of the history and significance of the great chalice of Antioch which she re cently saw in Philadelphia. To con clude the program it is hoped to have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. E. J.
Walker read a few short poems appropri ate to the topic. All members and other book-lovers are urged to attend this interesting last meeting of the year.

ing a bountiful luncheon
the dining room of Keuka uyanoga Chapter, D. A. R. regular business meeting on Mrs. G. L. Barden, chairman mericanism committee, an term of naturalization
held at the court house Interesting reports were from the 46th Continental Mrs. J. L. Challis, dele
Clyde I. Kelchner, re
Ruth E. Gulee gave a re
CAR conference. Three were rendered by Miss Nichols, professor of Keuka College.

church in Belgium, having repaired its properties, em artist to touch up an old ing. Upon presenting his committee in charge refused unless the details were whereupon the artist pre pared items as follows:

acting Ten Commandments,
beheading Pontius Pilate
new ribbon on his bon putting new tail on rooster
and mending his comb, luming and gilding left wardian Angel $4.18; touch ingatory and restoring lost stars; renewing Heaven, ad stars and cleaning up the brightening up flames
etting new tail on the Devil
ing his left hoof, $7.17;
g the robes of Herod and his wig, $4; cleaning monkey and putting on his $1.70; putting ear rings in his $2.04; putting new David's sling and extending it, $6.13; mending shirt of mon and cleaning his ear.

Sunday morning, April 23, at the conclusion of regular message Rev.
R. N. Jessup, pastor of First Baptist Church, and wife were deeply affected to hear the church choir sing as a hymn a poem which he had written a year ago and used at the close of his annual message to the church.
Rev. W. H. Wheatley, former pastor of the church, briefly announced the surprise number to be sung by the choir. He explained that the pastor's message was noticed by the secretary of his brother, Dr. E. C. Jessup, Long Island, and that the secretary was so impressed that she set the verses to music. Dr. Jessup then sent the sa cral song secretly to Miss Ethel Price, organist of the local church, who ar ranged with the choir to sing it Sun day. It proved to be a beautiful and touching surprise for all.

Penn Yan Democrat

Established 1818

FRIDAY, MAY 7, 1937

Pickerel and pike season opened
May 1.

Aurora borealis, northern lights, have been plainly visible for several nights.

Keuka Lodge, No. 149, I. O. O. F., will confer the first degree on a class of candidates next Monday night.

Hi-Y Club of Penn Yan Academy will hold its annual dance at Alley's Inn, Friday evening, May 28.

The regular meeting of Lake Keuka Rebekah Lodge, No. 342, will be held Tuesday evening, May 11, at 8 o'clock.

Camp Tarion, Finger Lakes Coun cil Boy Scout camp on Canandaigua Lake, will not be operated this sum mer.

On Monday evening the Y's and Other Y's Club met with Mrs. Ell's J.
Kennedy, at which time she presented the topic, "Improving the Vocabu lary".

Rev. Boyd A. Little, of Montour Falls, gave a very fine address before the Parent-Teachers' Association at the junior high school, Tuesday eve ning. Jean Warren gave a vocal solo during the program.

On Tuesday evening of this week, Rev. W. W. Lane attended a banquet given in Syracuse by the honorary philosophical fraternity Theta Beta Phi, of which Mr. Lane is a member, in honor of Dr. George Arthur Wilson who is closing forty years of distin guished service as professor of Phil osophy at Syracuse University.

Mrs. Catherine Woodruff Elliott, graduate harpist of the Eastman School of Music, will play at the morning service in the Penn Yan M.
E. Church. She with Mrs. Lynn Car penter, of Dundee, violinist, have a large part in the unveiling of the Mother's Wreath, or A Dream of Para dise, which is to be given in the eve ning and repeated on Monday evening.

A mass meeting will be held in the First Baptist Church, Penn Yan, Sun day evening, May 16, in the interest of peace. Special program of music and two speakers will be heard. The pub lic is invited. Admiral Richard E.
Byrd is honorary chairman of the Spring No-Foreign-War campaign and Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick is general chairman of the movement, of which the local meeting is a part.
Rev. R. N. Jessup, of Penn Yan, is chairman of local arrangements.

Penn Yan Academy baseball team had its opening game with Naples high school at Naples, April 27, defeating Naples 13-0. Dick Mahan, pitching the first three innings, obtained eight strikeouts and Sid Duerl, in the box for the fourth and fifth inning had four strikeouts. Bob Reagan, pitching the last two innings, had four strike outs to his credit. Gunnard Haslund was behind the plate the first 6 inn ings and was relieved by Corey in the seventh. Naples got only three hits off Penn Yan.

Luke O'Malley, aged 71, of Penn
Yan, R. D. 1, was arraigned before
City Judge Thomas A. Kane yester
day afternoon on a charge of petit
larceny. The aged man entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was
ordered held temporarily in the city
jail pending efforts to make restitution.
O'Malley specifically was accus ed of passing a worthless check for $12.40 at the Howard Hotel in Ex change Street, receiving $10 in
change. The check, drawn on Bald
win's Bank of Penn Yan was protest
ed and returned here and O'Malley
was arrested by Sergeant William C.
Yerg. —Geneva Times (Apr. 29).

Members of Penn Yan Stamp Club
are making an effort to have their
banquet on May 13 one of the philatelic
highlights of this section to close
a very satisfactory season for the local club. Each committee is doing its
part to make this meeting an entertain
ing one, including the refresh
ment committee which has selected a menu that is very appetizing. Another
feature of the banquet is the many
attractive prizes offered for competition.
There will also be three door
prizes.

The Modern Literature Club will meet Saturday night, May 15, at 8
o'clock, with Mrs. F. M. McNiff, 211
East Main Street. Louise Kipp will
review that thought-provoking new
book, "Return to Religion", and Mrs.
Margaret Durry will review Philip
Quedallas, "Hundred Years." Mrs.
Durry will also tell us something of
the history and significance of the
great chalice of Antioch which she re
cently saw in Philadelphia. To con
clude the program it is hoped to have the pleasure of hearing Mrs. E. J.
Walker read a few short poems appropri ate to the topic. All members and other book-lovers are urged to attend this
interesting last meeting of the year.

ing a bountiful luncheon
the dining room of Keuka
uyanoga Chapter, D. A. R. regular business meeting on
Mrs. G. L. Barden, chairman
mericanism committee, an
term of naturalization
held at the court house
Interesting reports were
from the 46th Continental
Mrs. J. L. Challis, dele
Clyde I. Kelchner, re
Ruth E. Gulee gave a re
CAR conference. Three
were rendered by Miss Nichols, professor of Keuka College.

church in Belgium, having
repaired its properties, em
artist to touch up an old
ing. Upon presenting his committee in charge refused
unless the details were
whereupon the artist pre pared items as follows:

acting Ten Commandments,
beheading Pontius Pilate
new ribbon on his bon
putting new tail on rooster
and mending his comb,
luming and gilding left
wardian Angel $4.18; touch
ingatory and restoring lost
stars; renewing Heaven, ad
stars and cleaning up the
brightening up flames
etting new tail on the Devil
ing his left hoof, $7.17;
g the robes of Herod and
his wig, $4; cleaning
monkey and putting on his $1.70; putting ear rings in
his $2.04; putting new David's sling and extending
it, $6.13; mending shirt of
mon and cleaning his ear.

Sunday morning, April 23, at the conclusion of regular message Rev.
R. N. Jessup, pastor of First Baptist Church, and wife were deeply affected
to hear the church choir sing as
a hymn a poem which he had written
a year ago and used at the close of
his annual message to the church.
Rev. W. H. Wheatley, former pastor of the church, briefly announced the
surprise number to be sung by the
choir. He explained that the pastor's
message was noticed by the secretary
of his brother, Dr. E. C. Jessup, Long Island, and that the secretary was so
impressed that she set the verses to
music. Dr. Jessup then sent the sa
cral song secretly to Miss Ethel Price,
organist of the local church, who ar
ranged with the choir to sing it Sun
day. It proved to be a beautiful and touching surprise for all.

PENN YAN DEMOCRAT, PENN YAN, N. Y.*INSURANCE BONDS

H. E. & F. M. Wilkins
Phone 440
Arcade Block Room 9

WATKINS SUPERIOR FUNERAL SERVICE
REASONABLE PRICES
139 STARK AVE. PHONE 644

JAMES H. SEAGER

All Forms of Insurance and Bonds Reliable Stock Insurance Companies Non-Assessable

Room 5 Cornwell Blk. Phone 211-W

Tindall Funeral Home

Licensed Funeral Director and Embalmer

Personal Attention Given to All

Calls by

Mrs. Catherine C. Tindall 111 Hamilton St.
Day and Night Phone 21

Penn Yan Credit Bureau

16 Arcade Bldg. PENN YAN

We Collect Past Due Rents

I. SEYMOUR PURDY

Real Estate, Insurance, Bonds

25 Main St. PENN YAN

Phone 446-W

DAVID MILLER

Everything in Insurance

Member of:
National Ass'n of Insurance Agents State Ass'n of Insurance Agents Associated Insurers of Yates, Seneca, Wayne and Ontario Counties

Arcade Block Phone 499

Penn Yan, N. Y.

$1.90

WORTH OF

Chi-Namel

Floor Enamel

OR

Chi-Namel Durite

Floor Varnish

FREE

½-Gallon of Chi-Namel

Floor Enamel

or

½-Gallon of Chi-Namel

Durite Floor Varnish

With Each

5-Gallon Purchase

of

Chi-Namel

HOUSE PAINT

Hollowell & Wise Co.

Phone 222 Penn Yan

HURRY!
OFFER GOOD
FOR LIMITED TIME ONLY

Penn Yan Academy seniors will hold their annual senior ball in junior high school gym Friday evening, May 7. Harold Henderson and orchestra of Ithaca College, will be the musi cians. Jane Carpenter is general chairman.

Patrons and patronesses are: Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Chauncey, Mr. and Mrs.
William E. Duval, Mr. and Mrs. Wil liam Reilly, Mrs. Ralph Quay, Mrs. E.
Pearl Clumm.

A Paris newspaper has a circula tion of two million, which is believ ed to be the largest in the world.

PERSONALS

Mrs. John Meehan, of Schenec tady is spending the summer with friends and relatives in Penn Yan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Oliver Wilcox and Allen Price spent the first of the week in Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Spear spent Wednesday and Thursday in Cort land.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Harvey Wheeler are in New York City attending the sessions of the New York State Dental Association.

Mrs. Janet R. Lynch, grand regent of Court S. Michael, No. 1173, Catho lic Daughters of America; Miss Helen Barry, Miss Genevieve MacKay, Miss Angeline Youst and Mrs. Eleanor Sheehan were guests Sunday of Court Rochester at a district conference at Hotel Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis LaClair and children, Donald and Mary Ann, spent the weekend with relatives in Syracuse where Mr. LaClair practiced law before opening offices in Penn Yan. They were accompanied by Mrs.
Walter Christensen and daughter, Jane, who visited Miss Eleanor Chris tensen, who is in nurse's training at St. Joseph's Hospital, Syracuse.

Potter Swamp bird census, Sunday
May 16.

Tod Dallas has made friends with a beaver in Guyanoga Creek and says the animal has become quite tame.

Rev. Z. F. Griffin, of Keuka Park, is in Strong Memorial Hospital, Roches ter, for observation and treatment.

George Morse and Ralph Lynch have been granted a permit to erect a gas filling station at corner of Lake and Liberty Streets, the two men having purchased the Mapes property.